The Joli Dancer™ is the extreme performance, premium European or custom ethnic hair creation for amateur and professional runners, dancers, martial artists, hot yoga enthusiasts and, in fact, any active Alopecian, of any age (incl. boys & men - with the new “Homme Sport” model) with little to no hair of their own. Designed to live life without compromise.

Don't be fooled by IMITATIONS that might look similar. Unless you are NOT already one of our extended family of over 1,000 Joli Dancer wearers worldwide, the Dancer is not like any other hair you ever worn.

The 30-minute test >

Just ask your chosen hair professional to let you try-on a Joli Dancer for 30-minutes, move in it, and you will likely be convinced. The Dancer is extremely light, all hand tied and breathable. In fact, the first impression is often “It feels like it's not there”.

Angie K. - in her own words

Super excited, I just ordered my 3rd Joli Cameleon Dancer and here's why... By Angi K., Minnesota.

As a long time Alopecian I have worn a multitude of wigs over the years; different brands, different cap construction, different cap sizes, different types of hair, and a wild variety of styles and colors. What I found is that nothing fit quite right. The wigs were either too big for my small head, stretched out with wear, didn't adjust well with the elastic straps, or just plain fit poorly, and nothing was able to comfortably stay in place with the activities and lifestyle that I had. After having an anxious moment during a yoga class where my wig had just about fallen off, I decided to do some research on gripper wigs and came across the Joli Cameleon Dancer. I'll never forget trying on my first Dancer. The fit was perfect, it was like it was made specifically for my head. The hair was phenomenal; long, silky smooth, and beautiful. The best part was getting up and flipping my head around to find the hair stayed and moved with me because of the silicone cap. I literally had tears in my eyes I was so happy. I could move, hang upside down in yoga, walk headfirst into the wind, wear my hair up off my face, and do just about anything without fear of my hair going anywhere. I've now had two Dancer's and both have lasted me 18 months or more with daily wear, which speaks to the amazing quality of these wigs. So, I am super excited to be ordering a third Joli Cameleon Dancer, as it has given me the confidence to go out and live life to the fullest, be active and happy, and forget that I'm wearing a wig because it's just so much a part of me.

A Message From Our Founder, Michael Leigh

"Joli Caméléon Human Hair Creations for Women & Children With Partial to Total Hair Loss. Rule-1: It HAS to be Beautiful"

Joli Caméléon™ Beauty, Design Innovation & You

When it comes to creating the industry's best performing and most beautiful human hair cranial prostheses, for women and children with severe to total hair loss, we first start with the reason a woman chooses to wear hair. Beauty must always come first. Yet genetic and medical hair loss from Chemotherapy, Radiation, Alopecia Areata, Totalis, Universalis, PCOS, Lupus and other causes, requires application-specific design consideration based on user research and performance benchmarks. "Better by design" (think Apple) is not just an advertising slogan, for us it is an imperative. I created Joli Caméléon's mantra: #AdaptBeautifully, to always remind me of the importance of innovation, and the chameleon's natural ability to adapt beautifully anywhere, any time to its environment. Life is unexpected. But we all strive to make the best of it. Everything we do embodies these beliefs.

We stand for the hair wearer in need. If she or he is losing their hair, it can have a profound, deeply personal effect on their psyche. We are here to help adapt to the new normal, in a beautiful way. The natural, rare, European and premium Ethnic human hair choices we make for our different collections are carefully chosen by application. Combine our hair creations with the artistry of our partners, the owners and team members of some of the best professional hair studios in the world, as well as our expert hair consultants, and master hairdressers, the Joli Caméléon hair wearer can enjoy her best hair day every day.

*Whatever the world throws at you,
Adapt Beautifully*

Michael - Michael Leigh, Founder

And all your Joli Caméléon Team of passionate "Hair Believers".
